

Definition of terms used in the learning process

Article 2. Definition of Terms Used in Training

1. The terms used in this Rule have the following meaning:

A) University - Legal Entity of Public Law - Samtskhe-Javakheti State University;

B) Academic Higher Education - a course of higher education which includes undergraduate, master's, teacher training integrated undergraduate and postgraduate studies educational programs;

C) student - a person who, under the Law on Higher Education; Enrolled in the university in the manner prescribed by the University Charter Undergraduate, Master's, Teacher Integrated Bachelor-Masters, Doctoral Education Program To pass.

D) Academic Degree - a qualification awarded to a student in an academic degree Grants a degree at the appropriate level of higher education University;

B) Undergraduate - first stage of academic higher education;

F) Bachelor - holder of the academic degree that a person has Bachelor's degree program credits Assigned as a result of the acquisition;

G) Master's Degree - second stage of academic higher education;

H) Master's student - student studying for Master's degree;

I) Master - the holder of the academic degree that a person has Master's degree program Granted as a result of appropriation of credits;

J) Doctoral studies - third stage of academic higher education;

K) PhD student - a person studying for a doctoral degree;

L) Student of exchange educational program – Georgia Higher education institution or foreign law Accordingly recognized higher education institution Student who is part of an exchange educational program Collects a specified amount of credits from the partner higher In an educational institution;

M) Teacher training program – relevant Higher education developed based on the standard Program.

N) Suspension of student status - the right of the institution and student - Dismissal of student status Without interruption;

O) Academic freedom - the right to study independently Carry out teaching, scientific research and learning;

P) Educational program (curriculum) - higher education Required training courses / modules A set of program goals, learning outcomes, Courses / modules with relevant credits, student assessment System and features of the learning process;

Q) Curriculum (syllabus) - a document that gives Information about the course / module objectives, learning outcomes, Credits, content, teaching and learning methods, assessment About the criteria

R) Exchange educational program - educational program, Which is implemented in higher education of Georgia Recognized in accordance with the institution and foreign law Of students enrolled in higher education institutions On the basis of a contract of exchange and the purpose of the exchange Credits by the student participating in the educational program Accumulate a certain amount of partner higher education In the facility;

S) Mobility - Free for students and academic staff Move through learning, teaching and research processes For participation both in Georgia and abroad Education, credits or qualifications earned during the course of study Recognition;

T) Internal mobility - free movement of students to university Between educational programs;

U) Recognition of education - higher education in Georgia or abroad Qualifications obtained at an educational institution or the same Education (credits) received during the studies in the institutions Recognizes the National Center for Educational Quality Enhancement, Georgia International Treaties and Georgian Education and In accordance with the rule established by the Minister of Science.

V) module - an independent sequential teaching block that Includes related items. The module defines objects Interrelationships and sequences. There are several modules for training Plan;

W) Credit - a unit that expresses the student's need Study load and which can produce learning outcomes Upon arrival; Learning outcomes - educational program, module, training Knowledge gained and acquired by the student at the end of the course skills.

Y) Qualification - the result of learning to achieve higher Overcoming the educational program and attested by the university Issued with a diploma;

D) Diploma - awarded by the relevant faculty council of the University Qualification document;

D) Diploma Supplement - a document to be issued together with a diploma; The content of the education received by the student and assigned to him / her To certify the qualification as well as the document to be issued Student's joint higher education program