

Article 19. Student Rights and Responsibilities

1. A University student has the right to:

(A) To receive quality education and to participate in scientific research; B) use material-technical base, library, information and other means;

C) obtain comprehensive information on educational programs at the University and request syllabuses for courses;

D) to demand a fair assessment of knowledge and to file adverse test results as prescribed;

E) receive qualified advice from the authorized person on the timing and format of educational programs, educational disciplines and examinations;

F) periodically evaluate the work of the academic staff / student services.

G) Repeat the course of study through self-financing within the semester credits established for the main program timeframe within the timeframe set for the educational program. In this case, the student will be given a better result when evaluating the course;

H) enjoy other rights conferred by law. 2. University students are required to:

A) to comply with the University regulations and disciplinary rules;

B) abide by and comply with the terms of the student contract;

C) adhere to the deadlines set by the university for the educational process;

D) pay the semester tuition fee within the timeframe for administrative registration and undergo academic registration; E) adhere to generally accepted norms of ethics and conduct;

F) take care of the property owned by the University;

3. The following shall be considered inappropriate and unethical for the student:

A) plagiarism - quoting the opinion or work of another without the author's reference;

B) systematic smoking of tobacco, except for specially designated

Seats, whatever

Will be confirmed by the document created by the authorized person;

C) gross and unethical treatment, violence and abuse of students, academic, administrative and support staff;

(D) Attempts to make an assessment by threatening, physically or psychologically threatening, cheating, cheating, or other inappropriate means or conduct.